The funds received from the payment of the license fee contributes to the implementation of this regulatory function.

SECTION 8-114 SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION OF LICENSES, AND PUBLIC HEARINGS UPON APPEAL FROM REVOCATION.

The Recorder, upon reasonable notice to the licensee, may summarily revoke any license issued by him for any reason which would have been grounds for denial of such license when first issued, for violation of any term or condition of such license, for violation of any pertinent provision of state law or other ordinances, or for the perpetration or attempted perpetration of fraud, malpractice or malfeasance by the licensee, without prejudice to prosecution of such licensee by the town. Any person having an interest in any license so revoked and who feels aggrieved thereby may request the recorder to further investigate the grounds for revocation and to reconsider his action, and if the recorder accedes to such request he may suspend or reinstate the license pending his final decision.
